To several persons as per Inventory	309 4 5
In small Debts for Housekeeping, Sallaries, Servants Wages, &c. about	1000
To sundry Losses and Averages by Insurance unadjusted; and for what Demands may hereafter come in respect of divers Policies of Insurance still depending for large Sums, computed about	4000
There is payable on the Contract made in August 1720 for the Purchase of Mrs. Titus's Estate (if the same proceed) about 68000 l. which will exceed the present Value of the Estate about	33000
Remains	239596 0 6

Besides the Debts due to me of 620 l. 10 s. 6 d. mention'd in the Inventory, which are esteemed to be desperate; and Besides what may be coming to me from the Moiety of the remainder of my Uncle Mr. Coulson's Estate standing out, which is very uncertain, there being several Demands out of that Estate, still depending; and besides my Dwelling House and Gardens at Carshalton.

But of my said Estate there is standing out in Parts of Ships, and on Bottomree, and in Adventures at Sea, and for other Debts, as appears by the foregoing Abstract, 38985 l. 17 s. 11 d. on which great Losses may happen.

And my South Sea, Bank and India Stocks, making together 37856 l. 8 s. 5 d. Stock, and here valued at 150 per Cent. the same at the present Prices of those Stocks is an over Value of N. B. I am bound to the Crown in 2000 l. as Security for Sir Harcourt Master, as Receiver of the Land Tax in London and Middlesex.

I value my House and Gardens at Carshalton as it cost me, viz. 3500 l.

John Fellowes.
